

Finance Director

$80,000 - $100,000

Please Note: Connecticut Port Authority reserves the right to underfill the Finance Director position at the level of Finance Manager, if deemed necessary

The Connecticut Port Authority (CPA) located in Old Saybrook, Connecticut is a quasi-public agency responsible for marketing and coordinating the development of the state's ports and maritime economy. It is the mission of the CPA to grow Connecticut's economy and create jobs by strategically investing in the state's three deep water ports and small harbors to enable each to maximize its own economic potential. The CPA seeks candidates for a Finance Director responsible for the fiscal administration, oversight, and the strategic direction of CPA's financial operation.

The Finance Director is responsible for creating and monitoring the CPA's budget, preparing operating and capital financial reporting to the Executive Director (ED). In partnership with the ED, the Finance Director will be the primary liaison between the CPA, Office of Policy and Management, other State of Connecticut agencies and Board of Director's Finance Committee and Audit, Compliance and Governance Committee on matters relating to CPA's finances.

The selected candidate will work in our office located at 455 Boston Post Road - Suite 204, Old Saybrook, CT. While remote work will be permitted during the COVID-19 global pandemic, the position will require some in office work, subject to the State of Connecticut's COVID-19 guidance in effect.
